Vanity Beauty Lounge

With modern boudoir essence and bejeweled mirrors lining the wall, the Vanity Beauty Lounge is the perfect place for contemporary Marie Antoinette-types to get primped and pampered. Nestled in the Embarcadero Center, owner Jade Goranson set out to build a spa with all the amenities that the women (and sometimes men) of San Francisco deserve. Goranson might have created the ultimate place to unwind. The delicious aroma of pomegranate-infused mani-pedis and the calming scent of warm lavender neck wraps (each client gets one) flows through the lounge. Clients can also opt for a regenerating soymilk mani-pedi as well as other delectable beauty fare from their menu of services, which include invigorating facials, meticulous waxing treatments and soothing chair massages. Many of the products used by their staff of down-to-earth beauty experts can also be purchased in the store, including Voluspa candles that will make the olfactory senses dance. The posh lounge is a prime destination when it comes to indulgent spa pleasures and comfort — all in the good name of vanity.
