BAR BELLE

Does this sound like a pub in Sydney's Paddington? Suspended glass 'clouds' from a five-metre-high ceiling, horn-shaped lights, brown tartan wall-covering, and fluoro under-lit bar? An English pastiche alcove, complete with leather chesterfields and decoupage Constable landscapes on the chimneybreast? The new designer in town shaking up the rarified Sydney interior scene is blunt Yorkshire lass, Jo Laurie, above. Her equally table-turning London bars have become cult destinations with more than just curiosity value. Coming to interiors by way of jewellery and street fashion design in New York, Jo's philosophy is simple. "I like to create visually stimulating environments. A bar is a place you come to have fun. I don't want people to take it all too seriously." Chef is Marcus Mano, formerly of 56 in Bondi, who has produced a well-priced bar menu. The prawn and snapper ravioli with preserved lemon, and a quail and kipfler potato salad with poached egg caught our eye. There's a choice of 20 wines by the glass and a short, snappy cocktail list. KAN
